Description:

The flavour profiles of these two varieties truly complement each other. Schönburger contributes delicate spice and subtle muscat highlights that are evident throughout. Gewürztraminer supports this wine with an added dimension of spice, and crisp, lively acidity.

Taste Profile:

Gewürztraminer offers delicate spice notes and a crisp citrusy acidity. Schönburger lends additional spice nuances and muscat highlights. The blend of flavours is tropical, reminiscent of papaya, passion fruit and lychee.

Serving Suggestions:

Great as an aperitif, with fruit and cheese, or also with today's lighter foods. Tandoori, grilled, lightly spiced pork, chicken, turkey and pasta salad.
